

RACHAEL UEBERGANG

NT Working Women's Centre

KAY EADE
Chamber of Commerce

KIM MANNERING
Central Australian Aboriginal Congress

DI GIPEY
Alice Springs Women's Shelter

CHRISTA BARTJEN-WESTERMANN
Sexual Assault Referral
Centre

IS YOUR BUSINESS READY TO RESPOND TO DOMESTIC & FAMILY VIOLENCE (DFV) AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

DFV affects 1 in 3 women. 2 out of 3
of them are in the workplace.

Is your business equipped to implement the new entitlements, manage the emerging liabilities and respond to the risks in this growing area of industrial law? Does your retention and diversity strategy address DFV and Sexual Harassment as key issues? How can your workplace support staff who are experiencing DFV or Sexual Harassment? Do your managers know what to do if and when this issue arises for your staff?

This panel presentation will bring together local business leaders to share what they have learned about responding to DFV and Sexual Harassment in the workplace. They will share their insights, strategies and practical advice to assist you and your business.

Learn the latest information and how local businesses are responding.

DFV Work Aware

when domestic & family violence comes to work

NT Working Women's Centre

Thursday November
23rd 12-2pm

The Chamber of Commerce
Suite 8, 1st Floor,
Todd Mall Centre,
Alice Springs

FREE event with light
refreshments –
donations welcome
(to cover catering)

RSVP:

By 21/11/17 to finance@asws.org.au

IS YOUR BUSINESS READY TO RESPOND TO DOMESTIC & FAMILY VIOLENCE (DFV) AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

DFV affects 1 in 3 women. 2 out of 3 of them are in the workplace.

Is your business equipped to implement the new entitlements, manage the emerging liabilities and respond to the risks in this growing area of industrial law? Does your retention and diversity strategy address DFV and Sexual Harassment as key issues? How can your workplace support staff who are experiencing DFV or Sexual Harassment? Do your managers know what to do if and when this issue arises for your staff?

This panel presentation will bring together local business leaders to share what they have learned about responding to DFV and Sexual Harassment in the workplace. They will share their insights, strategies and practical advice to assist you and your business.

Learn the latest information and how local businesses are responding.

DFV Work Aware

when domestic & family violence comes to work

NT Working Women's Centre

RACHAEL UEBERGANG

NT Working Women's Centre

KAY EADE

Chamber of Commerce

KIM MANNERING

Central Australian Aboriginal Congress

DI GIPEY

Alice Springs Women's Shelter

CHRISTA BARTJEN-WESTERMANN

Sexual Assault Referral Centre

Thursday November 23rd 12-2pm

The Chamber of Commerce Suite 8, 1st Floor, Todd Mall Centre, Alice Springs

FREE event with light refreshments – donations welcome (to cover catering)

RSVP:

By 21/11/17 to finance@asws.org.au

